THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY

HANOVER HIGH SCHOOL
HANOVER, ILLINOIS

Dedication

We, the students of Hanover, dedicate our 1976 Hanover High School Revenah to Mr. Russell Martin for his many years of service to our community. Mr. Martin has served as Postmaster of the Hanover Post Office since 1963. He has also been the treasurer of the Hanover Township Library Board for the past eighteen years.

Everyone, young and old, can talk to Mr. Martin day in and day out and he will always say "the people of Hanover are great." With this 1976 Revenah we want to tell Russell that we think he is great too. Thank you, Russell.

Superintendent's Message

Another phase of your education will soon be passed. It is good that education cannot be taken from you. Remember that education is a continuing process, whereby, one learns and grows with society and progress. My wish for you, the Class of 1976, is that you will continue to learn and prosper in whatever enterprise you choose to follow. The very best of luck to each of you and congratulations on your past accomplishments.

Keith R. Barkdoll

Principal's Message

Congratulations to the Class of "76". This is a year to remember. You have graduated at a time in our history when we are celebrating our 200th Anniversary. Your responsibility is to see that we continue on into our 300th year as the greatest nation in the world. We have had a good year in school. Your twelve years have gone so fast even you cannot remember all that has happened to you.

I want to thank the Seniors and the rest of the student body for their wonderful cooperation during the school year. I hope that whatever facet of life you choose as your career, or goal, that you meet success. You will be a success if you can say to yourself, "I respect my Family, Home, Community, and Nation, but mostly do I respect myself".

I wish you nothing but the best for the future and, God willing, I hope you all have a happy and prosperous life.

Mr. Murphy

Hanover Days!

Bicentennial Celebration

Around

Our Town

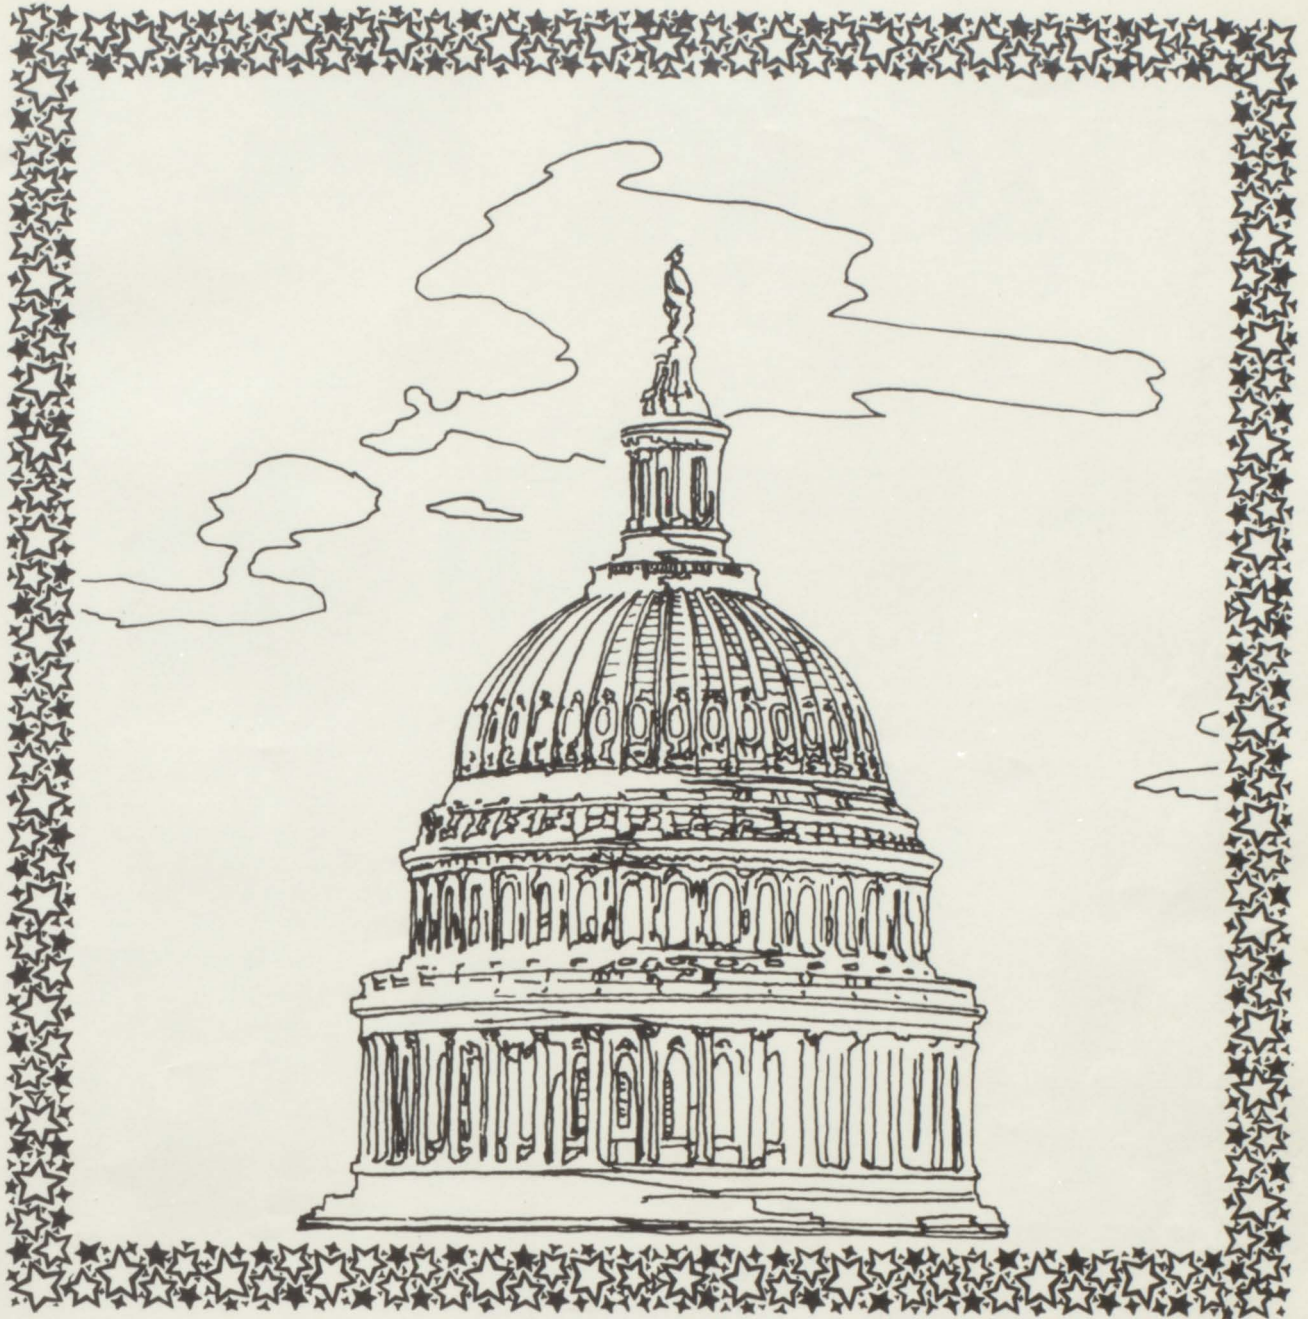

The Star-Spangled Banner

Oh! say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh! say, does the star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

On the shore, dimly seen thro' the mist of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream.
Tis the star-spangled banner, Oh! long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a country should leave us no more?
Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave,
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

Oh! thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home and the war's desolation,
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the Heav'n-rescued land
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our trust."
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.
